

Taylor Warren, D.D.S., M.D.

Biography

Dr. Victor Taylor Warren is a dedicated oral surgeon who is passionate about providing exceptional care to his patients. With a diverse training background and a strong commitment to continuous learning, he brings a unique perspective to the field of oral and maxillofacial surgery. Dr. Warren initially planned to pursue a career in medicine but was captivated by the direct and effective nature of oral surgery procedures.

After completing his DDS from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill School of Dentistry, Dr. Warren earned his Medical Degree at the University of Alabama at Birmingham School of Medicine. His extensive training in TMJ, orthognathic, and reconstructive surgery further enhances the services he provides to his patients, and he continuously seeks to improve his skills and knowledge, aiming to offer the highest level of surgical care.

One of the most rewarding aspects of Dr. Warren's profession is developing meaningful relationships with his patients. He genuinely cares about understanding their concerns and providing services that address their unique problems. Driven by a desire to make a positive impact, he aims to build a reputation as a well-respected and skilled surgical provider in the region.

Dr. Warren prides himself on being an attentive listener, particularly for issues that may have been overlooked in the past. His dedication to finding solutions stems from his passion for lifelong learning and exploring innovative approaches to exceptional patient care and outcomes. Dr. Warren emphasizes the importance of embracing challenges and finding joy in his work. By prioritizing his own growth and enjoyment, he ensures that both he and his patients benefit from the highest quality care.

Through his dedication to his patient's well-being and pursuit of excellence, he is poised to make a lasting impact in the field of oral and maxillofacial surgery.

Dr. Warren's family is originally from western North Carolina. While not in the practice, he enjoys kayaking, fishing, running, hiking, making homebrew beer, watching movies, and spending time with his wife and daughter.

Dr. Warren rotates between the Waynesville and Sylva Rockcliff locations.
